Oxford College Profile

Emory University offers two academically equivalent yet distinctively different educational programs for first-year students and sophomores. Oxford College is located thirty-eight miles east of Atlanta in the village of Oxford, Georgia, on the campus where Emory was founded in 1836. Approximately nine hundred students, one fifth of the Emory first-year and sophomore classes, enroll on the Oxford campus where they pursue a liberal arts intensive program for the first two years of their Emory baccalaureate degree.

Oxford College concentrates on development of students' intellectual, social, and personal capacities as these are understood in the liberal arts tradition. In their third and fourth years, Oxford students join their classmates on the Atlanta campus where they focus more on their majors and have immediate access to the resources of one of the world's leading research communities. Oxford College offers the advantages of (1) faculty who come to Oxford because they recognize the transformative potential of the first two baccalaureate years, (2) small classes averaging seventeen students (the largest class is thirty-three), (3) challenging yet supportive personal working relationships between faculty and students, (4) an environment that provides extensive opportunities for student participation and leadership, and (5) an exceptionally strong sense of supportive community among students, faculty, and staff.

Oxford's liberal arts-intensive character is expressed more in pedagogy than in curriculum. In-class discussion and debate, problem-based learning, case studies, individual and team research projects and presentations, frequent writing, and detailed analysis of texts are among teaching strategies that the faculty employs. A consistent theme throughout is to compel students to become engaged, active learners so that ultimately they acquire knowledge, skills, and understanding as a result of their own mental effort and discipline. Students are urged to go beyond the syllabus and to think creatively in deepening their knowledge and connecting what they learn in one course with what they have learned elsewhere. These teaching strategies are possible because of Oxford's small classes and the faculty's commitment to working with students as individuals.

All Oxford students live on campus in college housing, and residential life is an integral part of the Oxford educational program and the Oxford experience. Clubs, varsity and intramural sports, student theatrical and musical productions, personal development, and leadership training are among the activities that attract high levels of participation. There is an active program of weekly social and cultural events. Oxford students are generous with their time and concern and serve the Newton County community through Volunteer Oxford, the Bonner Leaders program, and extensive use of service learning in classes. One of Oxford's special assets is the ethnic, racial, socioeconomic, and geographic diversity of its students. The closeness of the Oxford community means that students are quickly known as individuals rather than as representatives of a group, and students report that often their most profound experiences are learning from others who are different from themselves. Oxford students form lifelong friendships and say that when they move to the Atlanta campus as juniors, they go with three hundred friends.

Oxford College is unique. Students spend two years in an intimate, challenging, yet supportive community where they develop as scholars and as persons and then move on to a rich research university environment where the resources and opportunities are unlimited. For many students, it is the perfect combination.

Oxford College of Emory University is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (1866 Southern Lane, Decatur, Georgia 30033-4097; Telephone number 404.670.4501) to award the Associate of Arts degree. In addition, Oxford College is accredited by the University Senate of the United Methodist Church.

MISSION STATEMENT

Oxford College provides a challenging liberal arts-intensive program for the first two years of the Emory baccalaureate degree. These years offer unique opportunities for intellectual, personal, and social development, and Oxford College is optimized to seize them. Oxford's students develop a fundamental understanding of how knowledge is created and applied; a broad knowledge of intellectual disciplines; well-honed skills in critical analysis, problem solving, and written and oral communication; and an understanding of the moral dimensions of the individual in a diverse society. They cultivate their capacities for self-authorship, leadership, personal commitment to wellness, and community engagement. This growth is fostered by an exceptionally supportive community in which students know each other, students know their faculty, and the faculty know their students. After completing the Oxford program, students spend their junior and senior years on Emory's Atlanta campus, where they have the resources of one of the world's leading research universities to support work in their majors.

VISION STATEMENT

Oxford College will attract and enroll exceptionally well-qualified student scholars poised to flourish in and significantly contribute to our liberal arts-intensive setting. We will achieve international recognition for our rigorous liberal arts curriculum and intentional programming and for the related scholarship and pedagogical innovation that support this enterprise. We will engage every student in substantial research, leadership, and character-development programs. Our collective efforts will foster a model community of inclusivity, in which we will recognize, nurture, and celebrate diversity in all of its manifestations.

Academic Program

ACADEMIC ADVISERS

Every student is assigned a faculty member who serves as that student's academic adviser. The Advising Support Center attempts, as much as possible, to align assignments based on the student's academic interests as indicated at the time of enrollment. Students meet with their adviser periodically throughout each semester to discuss degree progression, and interests in career options, scholarships, internships, and research opportunities. Adviser signatures are required for registration and other changes to a student's enrollment after registration. Advisers will assist students in their transition from high school to college and in their selection of courses, major, and career. While advisers provide assistance, each student is responsible for knowing and meeting the requirements for graduation explained in this catalog. Students who wish to change advisers should consult the faculty adviser(s) with whom they are interested in establishing the advising relationship. Adviser Change Request Forms are available in the Advising Support Center.

ACADEMIC LOAD AND CREDIT

The standard unit of credit in the semester system is the semester hour. Most courses earn four semester hours of credit, meeting for 195–200 minutes a week. However, physical education classes earn one semester hour of credit and also meets for 195–200 minutes per week. Laboratories for science courses meet an additional three hours per week.

OFFICE OF ACCESSIBILITY SERVICES

Office of Accessibility Services (OAS) works in partnership with the college and students to help provide equal access to educational opportunities for students with disabilities. In order to ensure access and accommodations that support students to attain their academic goals, OAS staff and our campus partners work actively to reduce barriers in the physical, electronic, and social environments of the campus. These practices encourage accessibility for all learners who wish to participate in what Oxford College and Emory University have to offer.

CONTINUATION TO EMORY COLLEGE

Early each spring semester, the staff, administration, and faculty of Oxford and Emory Colleges work to give Oxford's rising juniors the information and guidance required to continue as Emory College juniors as seamlessly as possible. This includes a required event, Emory Connections Day, on the Atlanta campus for all Oxford sophomores before the start of the spring semester. This event will take place the day before spring classes begin on January 16, 2018. Oxford students are also encouraged to begin acquainting themselves with the Atlanta campus in their first year at Oxford.

Frequent shuttle service to the Atlanta campus is provided for students (consult Campus Life for details).

COURSE LOAD REQUIREMENTS

An average course load is 17 hours per semester (four 4-hour courses plus physical education). Students may not take fewer than 12 hours nor more than *22 hours, plus physical education in any one semester. Students must normally enroll for the minimum full-time load of 12 credits, except that a student in the fifth or sixth semester of work is not required to enroll for more credits than are needed to complete the degree. Special permission is required from the student's academic adviser and the Advising Support Center to overload to register for more than 19 hours. See overload procedures for details.

CRITERIA FOR OVERLOADING (ENROLLING IN MORE THAN 19 HOURS PER SEMESTER)

In order to request permission to overload, a student must complete one semester or more at Oxford and have achieved a 3.0 or higher cumulative grade point average, or be in the last term before graduating and have a minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.0. Students not meeting the criteria to overload must receive special permission by completing the request for overload form with their academic adviser and submitting it to the Advising Support Center.

OVERLOAD PROCEDURES

Students must receive special permission from the Advising Support Center and their respective academic adviser in order to take more than 19 semester hours. First-year students must complete at least one semester at Oxford College and have a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher. Sophomores in their fourth term before graduation must have a cumulative GPA of 2.0 or higher. Students may be granted an overload up to a total of 23 semester credit hours. Students with outstanding incomplete course grades may not overload in credits in subsequent semesters. Requests for overload permission are received during open enrollment within the first five days of the start of a semester term.

NEW STUDENT ORIENTATION

Oxford College offers an orientation program prior to the start of all semesters. All new students are required to attend in order to become familiar with the campus, meet members of the faculty and staff, take placement tests, participate in the advising process and register for classes. New students will be informed about dates and locations of orientation activities. Parents are encouraged to attend events on the first day of orientation, meet the faculty and administration, and become acquainted with the educational philosophy of Oxford College.

READMISSION

To request permission to return to Oxford after withdrawing or being absent for one or more semesters (other than the summer semester), students must complete a readmission form (available from the Advising Support Center or online at oxford.emory.edu/academics/divisions-degrees/academic-planning-resources/readmission-application-form/). There is no application fee for readmission.

Applications, personal statements, all supporting materials, and up-to-date Clinical Treatment Provider Report Form(s) from each provider confirming medical clearance (if applicable) are due on or before the following dates: October 15 for spring semester, April 15 for Summer School on the Atlanta campus, and April 15 for fall semester.

Students applying for readmission after academic exclusion at the end of their last term at Oxford must additionally submit a petition outlining their plan for successful degree completion to the associate dean for academic affairs along with the Readmissions Application request.

Students applying for readmission after medical withdrawal must provide up-to-date documentation of medical clearance, and confirmation of arrangements for on-going treatment if necessary, on the Clinical Treatment Provider Report Form. Each provider must submit a separate Clinical Treatment Provider Report Form; this may include staff from Oxford's Student Health Services. Readmission following withdrawal for medical reasons requires clearance by designated university health officials.

Readmission to Oxford College is not guaranteed. All readmission applications are evaluated on the condition that the student can establish a reasonable plan for how they will successfully complete their Oxford College degree within the allotted time and abide by the expectations of the institution as responsible members of the Oxford College community. Applicants for readmission must be clear of all financial obligations to the institution, and, if applicable, have addressed any Honors Code violations and/or Conduct Code issues.

All readmission application materials and supporting documents must be sent to the Advising Support Center, Oxford College of Emory University, 118 Few Circle, Seney Hall Suite #103, Oxford, GA 30054 or sent electronically to oxadvising@emory.edu.

SUMMER SCHOOL

Special Courses and Programs

WAYS OF INQUIRY: INFORMATIVE AND TRANSFORMATIVE

Oxford's curriculum is distinctive in that it offers introductory classes with an innovative approach known as Ways of Inquiry (INQ). INQ courses are designed to be both informative and transformative. Students not only learn the fundamental concepts, principles, assumptions, and terminology of a particular discipline, but they also learn to understand and question the ways in which knowledge is pursued. INQ courses accomplish this goal through a process of discovery in which students actively learn and practice the discipline's approach to inquiry.

These explorations often consider ethical issues and social responsibility, make connections across disciplines, and expand classroom learning with real-world experiences. Courses driven by inquiry primarily focus on ways of knowing rooted within a discipline, and they also develop abilities that transcend disciplines: reading critically, communicating effectively, and pursuing knowledge independently through inquiry.

INQ courses are designed to stimulate intellectual curiosity, promote intellectual rigor, and independence. They open doors to understanding the ways in which people, nature, societies, and cultures interact in the world and how they have shaped the past, influence the present, and can change our future. INQ courses go beyond disciplinary boundaries to interconnectedness—how an array of disciplines adds to our understanding and can function as interlocking puzzle pieces that form a greater picture.

ARTS AT OXFORD

Oxford students have many opportunities to participate in artistic presentations in music, theater, visual arts, and dance. One-, two-, and four-credit hour courses are available, depending upon the discipline. Faculty members direct the arts programs. Opportunities are open to all students regardless of potential major or whether or not they are enrolled in arts classes. Our students perform in plays, perform in and choreograph dances, sing in the Oxford Chorale, play instruments in chamber ensembles, create musical compositions, and exhibit visual arts. Many Oxford students successfully major or minor in the arts at Emory College, yet most who participate in the arts at Oxford do so to expand their total educational experience.

LEARNING TO LEAD

Learning to Lead seeks to serve as a gateway for first-year student confidence and involvement in the academic and social communities of Oxford College. By exploring individual leadership, group leadership, and community leadership, the course will provide students with information and tools that will help them along their career at Oxford College. Co-taught by a current sophomore student and a faculty or staff member, Learning to Lead will guide students through the framework of the Social Change Model to allow them opportunities to reflect on their own Oxford experience and develop as leaders.

LYCEUM

The Lyceum Committee is comprised of members of the Oxford College faculty and staff. Its goal is to plan academic and artistic events for Oxford College students, faculty, staff, and members of the community. Every academic year, the committee offers a series of lectures on political, social, and religious topics by renowned speakers and presents artistic performances by national and international artists. The Lyceum Committee wishes to highlight the cultural and religious diversity at Oxford College and Emory University. This diversity entails the willingness to forsake prejudice, intolerance, and xenophobia and not only encounter but also understand and embrace others in a community of learning and mutual trust.

TRAVEL COURSES

As part of its commitment to experiential learning, Oxford has prioritized expanding the range of travel courses that it offers. Travel component courses are scheduled during the fall, spring, or summer semesters and involve a combination of on-campus and off-campus study. The off-campus travel component for these courses may occur between fall and spring semesters, during spring break, or shortly after commencement in May.

Enrollment in travel courses requires faculty approval. The faculty who lead these courses set criteria for students' enrollment that reflect the background needed to benefit from the travel experience and any relevant safety considerations. Students are charged an additional fee to cover the expenses of travel. Because Oxford offers financial aid during fall and spring semesters, students who qualify for financial aid will receive additional aid to assist with the travel cost for fall and spring travel.

OXFORD RESEARCH SCHOLARS PROGRAM

The Oxford Research Scholars program offers selected students the opportunity to work directly with faculty members for a full academic year on disciplinary research projects or projects related to the scholarship of teaching and learning. Faculty members in the humanities, social sciences, natural sciences, mathematics, and physical education have worked with dozens of students on a variety of projects.

The subjects of research have included the molecular design of gold-based anticancer therapeutics, the historical and social contexts of artwork created in response to the Epistle of James, seasonal comparisons of microbial life in sedum small soils, the confederate daisy caterpillar, exercise environment influences on perceived effort as mediated by technical instruction, and bio-inorganic chemistry: creating metal-based compounds of biological importance.

Students chosen as Oxford Research Scholars are expected to present their work in the annual Oxford Research Scholars Spring Symposium. As program participants, students learn how research within their disciplines leads to knowledge creation, are introduced to current research in their disciplines, and learn how research is organized and funded. Through knowledge of and direct involvement in research, students are provided with a different perspective on learning. Furthermore, students who engage in research during their sophomore year are able to compete with juniors and seniors when applying for summer internships, and are often chosen to participate in the Emory SIRE program (Scholarly Inquiry and Research at Emory) after graduating from Oxford.

The Oxford Research Scholars program reflects Oxford College's recognition of the educational benefits that are achieved by involving first-year and sophomore students in the research process. Participation in this program is by invitation.

Students who are interested in participating in this program should contact a professor whose research is of interest to them.

OXFORD SCHOLARS PROGRAM

Each year Oxford College designates a number of its outstanding incoming first-year students as Oxford Scholars. Oxford Scholars include Robert W. Woodruff Scholars, Dean's Scholars, and Faculty Scholars (see Academic Scholarships), all of whom are selected on the basis of their grades, curriculum, test scores, essays, extracurricular activities, and demonstrated interest. While enrolled at Oxford, these scholars participate in the Oxford Scholars program.

The Oxford Scholars program is dedicated to the academic enrichment of Oxford College as well as promoting a sense of community among Oxford Scholars. Oxford Scholars not only interact with other scholars but also with faculty members who volunteer their time to this program.

The program involves required events such as dinners with faculty, lectures and discussions on significant literary, historical, or artistic topics, and other events of interest. The cultural component exposes scholars to a wide range of cultural events in the local area and in Atlanta, such as plays, concerts, and other cultural activities.

OXFORD STUDIES

Oxford Studies is a one-hour, elective, multidisciplinary course, which, through attendance, participation, and written reflection, encourages thoughtful involvement in the cultural, artistic, and educational activities available in our community beyond the confines of the traditional classroom. Students earn credit by attending lectures, panels, music, theater, and dance events and by writing critiques of events. Oxford Studies supports the college's mission by promoting engagement with liberal arts issues of shared interest. It is offered every semester and may be repeated for credit.

PIERCE PROGRAM IN RELIGION

The Pierce Program in Religion began in 1976 with a gift from the D. Abbott Turner family. William Turner and the other members of the Turner family endowed the Pierce Chair in Religion in honor of two of their ancestors: Dr. Lovick Pierce and Bishop George Foster Pierce. Bishop Pierce, William Turner's great-great-grandfather, was president of Emory College from 1848 to 1854.

- Oxford College Department of Religion: The Department of Religion offers courses that fulfill general education requirements at Oxford College and Emory College as well as requirements for a religion major or minor on the university level.
- Pierce Lecture Series: This series, which includes the Chaplain's Lecture Series, brings to campus a number of distinguished lecturers in religious studies, ethics, and related disciplines.
- Pierce Visiting Scholar program with the University of Oxford in England: The Pierce Visiting Scholar program is a faculty exchange between the two Oxfords, Oxford College and the University of Oxford in England.
- Emory Studies in Early Christianity and Rhetoric in Religious Antiquity: Emory Studies in Early Christianity and Rhetoric in Religious Antiquity are book series that investigate early Christian literature in the context of Mediterranean literature, religion, society, and culture.
- Global Connections: Sponsored by the Pierce Program in Religion and housed in the Office of Religious and Spiritual Life, Global Connections is a travel experience designed to help students create meaning in their lives and connect their religious and spiritual convictions with social justice issues, including peace, poverty, human rights, and the environment.
- The Dr. Lovick Pierce and Bishop George F. Pierce Chair of Religion David B. Gowler: David B. Gowler is the Dr. Lovick Pierce and Bishop George F. Pierce Chair of Religion; and a senior faculty fellow, the Center for Ethics, Emory University.

RELIGIOUS AND SPIRITUAL LIFE AT OXFORD COLLEGE

The chaplain is a resource for all members of the college community and an advocate for the religious and spiritual life groups on campus. Programs and counseling services offered through the chaplain's office support students during their time at Oxford.

Respect for all religious and spiritual traditions is important at Oxford. All are welcome here, whether or not they are part of a religious, spiritual, or faith tradition. While here, students have the opportunity to participate in service, social, and religious programs sponsored by the chaplain's office, the Interfaith Council, and the ten chartered religious and spiritual life groups at the college. Throughout the year, many events celebrate a variety of faith traditions and their holidays.

The resources of the chaplain's office are available to all members of the college community. For more information, visit the website at: oxford.emory.edu/rsl

- The Journeys Travel Program: This travel program originated at Oxford College in 1988 but is now sponsored by Emory University's Office of Religion Life. For more information, please contact Rev. Lyn Pace, college chaplain, at 770.784.8392 or ppace@emory.edu.

ENGINEERING DUAL-DEGREE PROGRAMS

Emory College offers a dual-degree program that allows students to pursue study in either arts or science at Emory and engineering at the Georgia Institute of Technology. In this way, students receive a well-rounded liberal arts background from one of the best colleges in the US, while also taking engineering courses from one of the nation's premier universities. Students who participate in this program earn both a baccalaureate degree from Emory in the field of their choice and a BS from Georgia Tech. Oxford College students interested in the engineering dual degree program should review the information on the Emory College website and speak with the Oxford College engineering specialist advisers and the Office for Undergraduate Education Advising Office.

ROBERTO C. GOIZUETA BUSINESS SCHOOL

Oxford College students may apply to the Bachelor of Business Administration (BBA) program in their last semester at Oxford. To start in the fall of junior year, applications for admission must be received by February 15. Applications to start in spring of the sophomore year must be received by October 1. All applicants must complete the requirements for the associates (AA) degree from Oxford to be eligible for admission to the BBA program.

The BBA program would like students to demonstrate their ability to effectively manage a full course load (at least four graded, 4 credit hour courses per semester). Therefore, it is imperative that students interested in the program not take an underload during their time at Oxford. Students are encouraged to take five courses in their final semester(s) at Oxford; this can include a fifth one credit hour academic course or a one credit hour nonacademic physical education course.

Admission is competitive, and completion of preadmission requirements does not guarantee admission. Admission is based on academic achievement, evidence of leadership, and extracurricular involvement. An application is required and includes an essay and letters of recommendation.

Students seeking admission should contact Jessica Lowy, director of BBA admissions, to learn more about the program. She can be reached at 404.727.2713 or atjlowy@emory.edu. Jessica Lowy will come to the Oxford campus each semester for information sessions and on-campus advising, and is available via email and phone for advisement. Oxford College students are encouraged to participate in these on-campus sessions to review advising and their progress towards application to the BBA program.

Additional information regarding the BBA curriculum and admission are available on the pre-BBA information site at bus.emory.edu/prebba.

Before enrollment in the business school, Oxford students must complete the following:

- ECON 101 (Microeconomics) and ECON 112 (Macroeconomics). AP credit can satisfy these requirements.
- MATH 111 (Calculus I). AP Calculus credit satisfies the math requirement.

- MATH 117 (formerly Math 107) or MATH 207 (Statistics). AP Statistics credit can satisfy this requirement.
- BUS 210 (Financial Accounting)
- Continued Writing Course

Academic Tips:

- If you take MATH 111 and 112, you may take MATH 207 (Probability and Statistics) instead of MATH 117. Some students take advantage of this option because they plan to double major in economics. The Emory College Department of Economics will take Oxford's MATH 207 as equivalent to Emory College's ECON 220, which is a graduation requirement for a degree in economics. The business school will take MATH 207 as equivalent to MATH 117 (a preadmission requirement).
- If a student has IB Higher Level Economics credit, this satisfies the entire economics prerequisite, even though Oxford grants credit for Micro only (i.e. students with IB Higher Level Econ credit do not need to take Macro).
- The Business School prefers students get a "C" grade instead of withdrawing from a course. They are seeking students who demonstrate resilience in the face of challenges, which includes working through difficult and unfamiliar coursework. Students considering withdrawing from a course are encouraged to contact Jessica Lowy first to determine the potential impact in regards to BBA admission.
- Students should not repeat coursework if they are disappointed with their grade. The Business School wants to see how students perform with new information, so the best course of action is to move forward to other coursework.
- For the Continued Writing course, the Business School prefers that students take a class that is taught in the English language (vs. a foreign language) and in a non-quantitative subject area.

NELL HODGSON WOODRUFF SCHOOL OF NURSING

Oxford College students apply to the Nell Hodgson Woodruff School of Nursing during their sophomore year. Applicants are strongly encouraged to submit their application materials using the online application form at apply.nursing.emory.edu/apply. Students should contact their faculty adviser for more detailed information. Additionally, Oxford students are also expected to meet the Oxford College graduation requirements, including First-Year Writing Requirement and the Continuing Writing Requirement (CWR), Ways of Inquiry (INQ), and Physical Education (PED) course requirements. Information about these specific requirements related to the Oxford College General Education Program can be found at oxford.emory.edu/academics/catalog/degree-requirements/distribution-requirements/.

Lastly, students applying to the Nell Hodgson Woodruff School of Nursing are required to demonstrate current CPR certification before beginning the BSN program. For more information, or to obtain hard-copy application materials, contact the Office of Admissions and Student Services at nursing.emory.edu/admission.

PRE-PROFESSIONAL PROGRAMS AND REQUIREMENTS

The Oxford curriculum provides background for a number of professional programs, including allied health professions, dentistry, engineering, law, medicine, pharmacy, theology, and veterinary medicine. Students should contact the professional school of their choice for more specific information as requirements may differ between programs and/or schools. In addition, each student planning to pursue one of these professions should work with his or her academic adviser to plan a program of study at Oxford College.

Academic Divisions at Oxford College

HISTORY AND SOCIAL SCIENCES

Professors Ashmore, Bagwell, Carter, K., Lewis, McQuaide, Owen-Smith, and Shapiro; Associate Professors DeNicola, Leinweber, Ninkovic, Shannon, Stutz, and Yang; Assistant Professors Beaudette, McGee, Romano; and Senior Lecturers Riner and Vigilante

The need for students to acquire knowledge of the enduring values of Western civilization and of concepts that underlie these values imbues the purpose of the History and Social Sciences Division. This purpose presumes that responsible members of society can develop only from persons who understand their roots and whose convictions are the result of critical thought rather than simple acculturation. This is the foundation for the disciplines of the division, which also provide the academic basis for a variety of professional and vocational options.

HUMANITIES

Professors Anderson and Gowler; Associate Professors Archetto, Bayerle, Cottrell, Galle, Ivey, Loflin, McGehee, Moyle, Mullen and Pohl; Assistant Professors Dobbin-Bennett, Gunnels, Mousie, Palomino, Reid, Resha, and Tarver; Professor of Pedagogy Bell; Senior Lecturer Davis; Lecturer Hawley

The Division of Humanities offers introductory and upper-level courses in art, film, foreign language, literature, music, philosophy, and religion. The division encourages students to evaluate and appreciate our literary, artistic, philosophical, and religious heritage. English 184, 185, cannot be used to satisfy the humanities requirement. English 399R, Music 300R, Music 300V, and Music 310 may not be used to fulfill the General Education program requirements.

Students graduating from Emory College must have completed two semesters of work in a foreign language. Students are encouraged to complete this requirement at Oxford so that they may concentrate on work in their chosen major during their junior and senior years.

ENGLISH REQUIREMENTS

First-year Writing Requirement

Students must satisfactorily complete English 185 to fulfill the First-Year Student Writing Requirement. All international students whose first language is not English are required to take the English placement exam when they arrive on campus for orientation. Both English 185 and English 186 fulfill the First-Year Student Writing Requirement. Students with Advanced Placement (AP) credit, International Baccalaureate (IB) credit, or transfer credit may be eligible to exempt the Writing Requirement.

Prerequisites

Students must have completed or exempted the First-year Student Writing Requirement before taking any course above the 185 level.

NATURAL SCIENCE AND MATHEMATICS

Professors Baker, Carter, Jacob; Associate Professors Chen, Parker, Powell, Rogers, Saadein, and Seitaridou; Assistant Professors Fankhauser, Hage, Hulgan, Neuman, Osburn and Purkis; Professors of Pedagogy Harmon; Senior Lecturer Oser; Lecturers Lee, Martin, Mo, Segre, and Taliaferro-Smith.

The Division of Natural Science and Mathematics includes astronomy, biology, chemistry, environmental science/geology, physics, and mathematics.

Placement recommendation into any science course, excluding chemistry, is contingent on student profile (courses completed, standardized testing). Placement recommendation into any chemistry course is contingent on successful completion of an online placement module. Placement recommendation into any mathematics course is dependent on performance on the placement tests given during orientation which, in turn, is dependent on the online mathematics placement that each student needs to take before arriving. A student who anticipates concentrating in natural science at Emory should take a minimum of two courses in his or her chosen field, two courses in an allied science, and basic mathematics courses at Oxford.

MATHEMATICS

Students entering colleges and universities across the country vary considerably in their level of preparation in mathematics. Students need to select courses according to their ability and needs. Entering students earn credit toward the MQR mathematics requirement through some Advanced Placement (AP) or International Baccalaureate (IB) tests. As a general rule, students may earn credit through AP or IB, or by completing the comparable Oxford course, but not both. If credit is earned through AP or IB, then lower level courses in the sequence Mathematics 100/110/111/112 may not be taken for credit. Specifics are as follows:

AP Exam or Course Equivalents:

We will accept a score of 4 or 5 on the AP Statistics exam. It is counted as general transfer credit (credit applied toward graduation, but will not be considered a course equivalent and will not fulfill any major program requirements in Emory College).

We will accept a score of 4 or 5 on the AP AB Calc exam, and it is counted as Math 111 credit

We will accept a score of 4 or 5 on the AO AB Calc exam, and it is counted as Math 111/112.

IB Exam and Course Equivalents:

We will accept a 5, 6, or 7 on the HL Math IB exam, and it is counted as Math 111 credit.

Notes: (1) What Emory College accepts to fulfill major program requirements is subject to change. Please consult the appropriate. (2) AP Statistics credit currently counts for one of the Goizuetta admission prerequisites. AP Statistics does not satisfy the MQR tagged area requirement, but it will transfer as elective credit according with general AP policy.

Tutors and Supplemental Instructors

In the Division of Natural Science and Mathematics, some of our best students (usually sophomores) serve as tutors, laboratory assistants (TA), and supplemental instructors (SI).

Tutors are available in the Mathematics Center in the afternoons to help students with homework. The mathematics department provides student tutors for Math 100, 110, 111, 112, and 117Q.

Student assistants (TAs) are used in science laboratories. Depending on the agreement, these laboratory assistants may hold study sessions, help students study for tests, or tutor at night.

Supplemental Instruction (SI) leaders assist students in studying for historically difficult courses. SI leaders are students who have successfully completed the course for which they lead supplemental instruction. Each SI leader attends the class to which they are assigned and holds one to two study sessions per week to help students learn how to study for the course. These sessions are voluntary and attendance is not reported to the professor. For additional information and updated SI schedules please visit the Oxford website on Supplemental Instruction.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Introduction of Center for Healthful Living

The Center for Healthful Living (the CHL) under the leadership of Director Amanda Yu-Nguyen supports the Oxford College core mission of healthy living in a residential, liberal arts environment. The CHL program provides the college community with opportunities to find pleasure and meaning in a broad range of physical activities. The faculty and staff in the CHL are dedicated to integrating physical education with athletics, intramurals, and recreation in a coherent approach leading to a lifetime of healthy living.

INSTRUCTORS FOR CENTER FOR HEALTHFUL LIVING

Students are required to earn two semester hours in Physical Education from the CHL. Students must complete one physical education course during their first year and sophomores must complete one physical education class during their sophomore year, unless granted an exemption by the dean of academic affairs, in consultation with the academic coordinator and director of the Center for Healthful Living.

Physical activities for physical education classes may include vigorous movement. Students who have a medical condition that prevents them from fully participating in a physical education class, please contact the Office of Accessibility Services (OAS). The courses will be adjusted to fit the needs of the student so that the student will be able to meet the graduation requirements. If a student is incapacitated while enrolled in a course, adjustments for completing the course will be made with his/her instructor.

Oxford College Course Descriptions

In the following course descriptions, you will note that courses normally earn four semester hours of credit. The 100-level courses are general or survey courses and most of the 200- and 300-level courses have such courses as prerequisites. Though SI can help any student, the program is not designed for remediation but rather for students who typically average a C or better in a course. On average, evidence supports that regular attendance to SI session can increase a student's grade by a half to a full letter grade. For further information, refer to the website at emory.edu/OXFORD/SI/.

OFFICE OF ACCESSIBILITY SERVICES (OAS)

Office of Accessibility Services (OAS) provides academic services and accommodations for students with diagnosed disabilities. Students are responsible for initiating the accommodation request process by self-disclosing their disability directly to the OAS office. All requests and materials are handled in the strictest of confidence. The documentation provided regarding the disability diagnosis must demonstrate a disability covered under Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) of 1990, amended as of 2008. The ADA defines a disability as a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities.

If you are interested in learning more about OAS or would like to begin the registration process, email adsroxford@emory.edu or call 770.784.4690. OAS office hours are Monday through Friday from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. at the Oxford campus located across the hall from the Student Health, Counseling and Career Services Building in 134 Project Room, East Village Murdy Hall.

Students do not pay for office visits to the Student Health Service but are responsible for costs of special services such as laboratory tests, prescription medicines, and visits to private physicians or clinics and hospital emergency rooms. Fees for special services may be billed through the Bursar's Office. A student may submit charges for lab and supply fees to his/her health insurance company for reimbursement.

To obtain more information about Student Health Service, please call 770.784.8376 or visit our website at oxford.emory.edu/student-health.

These forms are available online at oxford.emory.edu/health-forms/.

INSURANCE

Emory University (including Oxford College) requires that all new and continuing degree-seeking students and all international students either have health insurance or purchase the university-sponsored plan. In order to waive enrollment in the Emory Student Health Insurance Plan (offered by Aetna/The Chickering Group), students must show evidence of enrollment in a United States–domiciled health insurance plan that meets specific waiver criteria. Students may waive enrollment through their OPUS account prior to July 1.

If you wish to be enrolled in the Emory Student Health Insurance Plan, there is nothing further that you need to do. You will be automatically enrolled in the plan at the conclusion of the waiver period on July 1 and you will receive an insurance card in the mail (at the mailing address that you have on file with OPUS). ## COUNSELING AND CAREER SERVICES

Counseling and Career Services (CCS) offers a range of services that promote personal, interpersonal, vocational, and professional development of Oxford College students. As a whole, CCS engages students in developing insights and skills, for application to the many dimensions of their lives.

We facilitate students' exploration and discovery of their identities and aspirations, guiding them to use the various inner and community resources available to them. Whether we invite reflection, offer empathy and support, help create opportunities for discernment, or guide their navigation of barriers and challenges, our aim is to enhance their academic experience and overall growth toward lifelong flourishing.

Our career services help students explore the many dimensions of career and life planning. This includes providing assistance in self-assessment toward deciding a major, choosing a suitable career, or even finding an internship. We also provide help related to writing or revising resumes and cover letters.

Our licensed mental health providers offer free and confidential behavioral health services (individual counseling, psychiatric evaluation, medication management, crisis intervention) on a range of student development and mental health concerns, attending to and respecting the many culturally informed perspectives and experiences reflected in our diverse student body.

All CCS services are free and confidential. ## PARKING RULES AND REGULATIONS—STUDENT VEHICLE REGISTRATION

If you intend to bring a vehicle to Oxford College, fall and/or spring semesters 2017–2018 and have not already registered your vehicle, you should do so at this site: oxford.emory.edu/parking.

It is recommended that you register as soon as possible because parking permits are issued on a first-come, first-serve basis. The cost to register your vehicle for the school year is $125.00 per semester. The parking permit fee will be billed to your student account as part of the pre-term registration bill. Students must register their vehicle prior to June 15, 2017, for the fall semester to avoid an additional $25.00 late fee. If you plan to keep your vehicle on campus for both fall and spring semesters, you should register for both fall and spring semesters when registering. If for any reason, you determine that you no longer need a vehicle permit after obtaining one you can have a prorated credit provided to your student account after returning your permit to the campus police.

Student parking permits will be available for new students during Freshmen Orientation on August 18, 2017, inside the library. Returning students that register for a parking permit will be contacted by email about where to pick up their parking permit once they arrive on campus.

ORAU

Since 1946 Emory students and faculty have benefited from the university's membership in Oak Ridge Associated Universities (ORAU), a consortium of ninety-six colleges and universities and a contractor for the US Department of Energy (DOE) located in Oak Ridge, Tennessee. ORAU works with its member institutions to help their students and faculty gain access to federal research facilities throughout the country; to keep its members informed about opportunities for fellowship, scholarship, and research appointments; and to organize research alliances among its members.

Through the Oak Ridge Institute for Science and Education, the DOE facility that ORAU operates, undergraduates, graduates, postgraduates, and faculty enjoy access to a variety of study and research opportunities. Many of these programs are especially designed to increase the number of underrepresented minority students pursuing degrees in science and engineering.

ORAU's Office of Partnership Development seeks opportunities for partnerships and alliances among ORAU members, private industry, and major federal facilities. Activities include faculty development programs, consortium research funding initiatives, faculty research and support programs, and services for chief research officers.

For more information about ORAU and its programs, call 865.576.3306 or visit orau.org.

EXPENSES

Basic Cost

Basic expenses for the academic year 2017–2018 are approximately $32,354 per semester (tuition, fees, room, and board). The student should allow additional funds for such expenses as books, laundry, personal items, and entertainment.

Tuition

The 2017–2018 semester tuition charge of $23,900 includes full-time instruction in an average program of study, use of facilities and equipment, medical and health service, and library service. Students who do not waive their health insurance option will be billed for health insurance.

Part-time students (with a course load of fewer than twelve semester hours) are charged $1,992 for each semester hour. This charge does not include medical and health service. Off-campus courses during the interim and summer terms require the payment of $1,494 per semester hour at registration. There is an additional charge for living and traveling expenses incurred in these courses. These costs are announced at the time of registration for the course.

Room and Board

The 2017–2018 cost of room and board averages $3,972 for room and $2,299 for board per semester. This rate applies to a double-occupancy and a standard triple residence hall room and meal plan. Residence hall rooms commonly are furnished with beds, mattresses, desks, chairs, dressers, and sinks. Single rooms entail an additional charge and are not available to first-year students.

Oxford College is a residential campus. In certain cases, commuter status is granted to students who successfully petition the college to be exempt from the residency requirement. These students must live with a parent or guardian and provide a plan to be engaged in the campus community.

Students who have special circumstances can request to be exempt from the residency requirement upon petition. Please contact the Residential Education and Services Department for more information.

FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE

Scholarships, loans, and on-campus employment tailored to individual ability and need are available. Oxford works to combine scholarships, loans, and part-time employment with parental assistance in an effort to help students do their best work without financial strain.

A student must reapply for aid by the deadline each year. Provided the student continues to demonstrate financial need and remains in good academic standing with a GPA of 2.0 or greater, a first-year recipient can expect an aid package to be renewed for the sophomore year at Oxford. Given continued demonstration of need, and applying for aid on time each year, students continuing to Emory College for their junior and senior years can expect to receive the same percentage of tuition in need-based aid that they received at Oxford.

Need-based grants are awarded for an academic year, provided the student is not placed on academic probation for two consecutive semesters. A student placed on Honor Council probation will automatically lose his or her grant and scholarship. Students with less than a 3.0 GPA will have their grant eligibility reduced by the GA Hope scholarship award equivalent regardless of the state they reside. Students with less than a 2.0 GPA will have their grant eligibility reduced by a determined percentage, and will not receive 100 percent of their institutional grant eligibility. Oxford uses both the College Scholarship Service Profile and the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) to determine eligibility for financial aid. The College Scholarship Service is a cooperative program for handling confidential statements submitted by parents in support of applications for financial assistance.

Both the CSS Profile and FAFSA forms should be filed online at collegeboard.com and fafsa.ed.gov, respectively. Signed copies of all student and parent tax returns, schedules, and W2 forms must be sent to the IDOC processor through the College Scholarship Service. For students who apply under the Early Decision I deadline, these statements should be sent by December 1 in order to ensure a financial aid award will be received prior to the December 15 deposit deadline. January 15 is the priority deadline for students who apply under Early Decision II and February 15 for those who apply under Regular Decision. Financial aid award packages for entering students with complete financial aid files are available 48 to 72 hours after the admission notification is made available. Financial aid award packages for returning and continuing students will be mailed in the summer.

Only applicants who have been accepted for admission or who already are enrolled will be awarded financial aid. Please view all financial requirements at studentaid.emory.edu.

“Federal financial aid laws and regulations require that each state have a process to review and act on complaint concerning educational institutions in the state. If you have a complaint, you may, of course, file a complaint with Emory's financial aid office or call the Trust Line at 1.888.550.8850.

You may also file a complaint about Emory University with the State of Georgia Office of Inspector General by following the directions at the Office of Inspector General (OIG) website. In the event that OIG receives a student complaint relating to financial aid, it will be forwarded to the Office of Inspector General of the US Department of Education."

Regulations

ADMINISTRATION OF CURRICULUM

Academic policies of the college are discussed by the Academic Policy and Planning Committee and voted on by the faculty.

REQUIREMENTS AND ELIGIBILITY FOR GRADUATION AND CONTINUATION TO EMORY COLLEGE:

1. Fulfill the course requirements
2. Achieve a cumulative grade-point average of at least 2.0 on work taken at Oxford
3. Residency requirement: a minimum of forty-two (42) semester credit hours taken at Oxford College the last eight semester hours must be taken at Oxford College or in Emory University Summer School
4. Students may not transfer between Oxford College and Emory College

CONTINUATION REQUIREMENTS

Oxford College continuing students must earn a total of 127 semester hours of credit (124 academic hours, a minimum of 2 physical education credits and a third academic or physical education credit) to graduate from Emory College. Of these credits, a minimum of 54 semester hours must be earned in Emory College with a minimum of three semesters of residence in Emory College (12 semester hours or more per semester). Courses taken from Emory College while an Oxford College student cannot count as part of the Emory College residency requirements. A semester of fewer than 12 hours can be combined with another semester of fewer than 12 hours to make up one semester of residence; however, a partial semester may not be combined with a semester of more than 12 hours to form two semesters of residence.

FINANCIAL REQUIREMENTS FOR GRADUATION

It is a requirement for graduation that all financial obligations to the college be satisfied. If one has outstanding loans not yet due and payable, loan documents satisfactory to the college must be executed and delivered, and all payments must be current.

GRADING SYSTEM

Grades and Quality Points

Symbols A, A-, B+, B, B-, C+, C, C-, D+, D, and S indicate credit; F indicates failure; I indicates that the student has not completed all the work for a course; IF indicates failure to finish an incomplete; U indicates unsatisfactory; W indicates withdrawal without penalty; WF indicates withdrawal failing; and WU indicates unsatisfactory withdrawal. In addition to the standard four-point scale, an optional plus-minus grading system may be used; faculty members who choose to use plus-minus-based grading will so state in their course syllabus. The plus-minus grading system is mandatory in summer school.

Each passing grade carries with it a proportionate number of quality points. For each semester hour of credit, quality points are computed as follows:

Standard Four-Point Scale		Optional Plus-Minus Scale
A	= 4.0	A	= 4.0	C+	= 2.3
B	= 3.0	A-	= 3.7	C	= 2.0
C	= 2.0	B+	= 3.3	C-	= 1.7
D	= 1.0	B	= 3.0	D+	= 1.3
F	= 0.0	B-	= 2.7	D	= 1.0
				F	= 0.0

Symbols used for grades that result in no credit are F, failure; U, unsatisfactory; W, withdrawal without grade; WF, withdrawal while failing; WU, unsatisfactory withdrawal; and AU, for courses audited. Oxford students do not have the option to choose the grade of S/U for any course.

Incomplete Work

An I, incomplete, is recorded when the associate dean of academic affairs, for reasons such as a student’s illness or emergency, grants a student permission to postpone a final examination or other work required to complete a course; a faculty member may request permission to assign a student an I when the faculty member needs more time to complete evaluation of that student’s work. Failure to complete the work for which the I was granted by the end of three weeks into the next semester of residence in Oxford College or Emory College will result in an IF unless an extension is granted by the associate dean of academic affairs. For students who do not return to Oxford or continue at Emory, the I must be removed within a calendar year or it becomes an IF. The grades of WF and IF are computed as F.

Calculating Grade-Point Average

Every passing grade carries with it a proportionate number of quality points. Quality points are listed. W’s are not calculated in the hours attempted, but WF’s and IF’s are counted. To calculate grade-point average, divide quality points by hours attempted.

Sample:

What are the steps?

1. List each course, the number of credits, and the course grade:

Course	Credits	Grade
Eng 185	4	B
Biol 141	4	D
Hist 101	4	A
PE 126	1	C

2. Multiply the number of credits in each course by the number of quality points corresponding with your letter grade:

Quality Points (QPs)

A = 4 pts.

B = 3 pts.

C = 2 pts.

D = 1 pt.

F = 0 pts.

Course	Credits	Grade	Points	QPs
Eng 185	4	B	3	$4 \times 3 = 12$
Biol 141	4	D	1	$4 \times 1 = 4$
Hist 101	4	A	4	$4 \times 4 = 16$
PE 126	1	C	2	$1 \times 2 = 2$

3. Add the credits and the quality points for every course in which a letter grade was received:

Course	Credits	QPs
Eng 185	4	12
Biol 141	4	4
Hist 101	4	16
PE 126	1	2

4. Divide number of quality points by the number of credits for the semester:

Credits = 13

QPs = 34

GPA = QPs ÷ Credits

Semester GPA =  $34 \div 13 = 2.61$

MIDTERM DEFICIENCIES

Professors notify students if their academic performance is deficient at the midpoint of the semester. The notification will detail the student's progress and may include suggestions for improvement. Students receiving midterm deficiency (MTD) notifications should meet with their academic advisers to discuss a plan to successfully manage the completion of the term. A letter is sent to the parents of students receiving three or more midterm deficiencies if the student has signed a FERPA consent for the release of academic information.

ELECTRONIC STUDENT INFORMATION AND ENROLLMENT

OPUS (Online Pathway linking University Students) is Emory's student information system on the web. Students are able to register, add, drop, and swap courses; view unofficial transcripts, grades, schedule changes, registration appointment times, academic adviser's name, billing information, financial aid information, whether or not a hold has been placed on the student's account; and addresses, telephone numbers, and email addresses.

REPORT OF GRADES

Student grades are available only on the web (OPUS) for password-protected viewing.

CHANGING COURSES

A student may change courses until the end of the Add/Drop/Swap period, which occurs on the eighth calendar day after the first day of classes each semester. During this period, classes dropped will not appear on the student's transcript. A student (with his or her adviser's approval) may add, drop, or swap classes based on registration periods indicated on the academic calendar.

DROPPING COURSES

Students may not drop English 185 and English 186, during the first year, or physical education courses (for exceptions to this policy, see below). After the Add/Drop/Swap period ends, a W is given for the course withdrawn from a student's schedule. All other courses may be withdrawn with no academic penalty during the first six full weeks of classes of the semester after the Add/Drop/Swap period, up to the midterm withdrawal deadline, providing that the student continues to carry a load of 12 credit hours, with approval of the student's academic adviser.

Only students in their fifth or sixth final semester of residence, or those granted permission by the associate dean for academic affairs are permitted to underload based on documented, extenuating circumstances. Only these students may carry a course load below 12 credit hours. Oxford

Scholars are required to maintain at least a minimum of sixteen (16) semester credit hours of enrollment.

Students who withdraw from courses after the end of the first six weeks for medical reasons, corroborated by appropriate documentation, are assigned a W for the courses withdrawn. The associate dean of academic affairs may, for compelling academic reasons and with the recommendation of the student's course instructor and academic adviser, grant a W for a course withdrawn between the end of the sixth week and the last day of classes. In all other cases, course withdrawals made after the first six weeks will be assigned a WF unless the student withdraws from the college (see Cancellation and Withdrawal). *A student who has been accused of an Honor Code violation may not withdraw from the course. Please refer to the academic calendar for the timeline and deadlines for Add/Drop/Swap and withdrawals.

There is no tuition refund for a schedule reduction except in cases of a total withdrawal from the college before the end of the sixth week of class. Please refer to withdrawal information on the Oxford College website.

ONE-TIME FIRST-YEAR STUDENT WITHDRAWAL

Students may be allowed one withdrawal from a course after the six-week withdrawal deadline and until the end of the tenth week of classes during their first two semesters of full-time residency at Oxford College provided that they maintain a 12 credit hour course load, with approval from their academic adviser and the advising Support Center. An eligible student must complete a one-time first-year student withdrawal form and follow the appropriate procedures as outlined above. This voluntary withdrawal policy applies to first-year students and transfer students and applies to any courses excluding: English 185, English 186, and physical education. This policy does not apply to second-year students and students who are on study abroad programs.

FINAL EXAMS

Students must have the permission of the associate dean of academic affairs to take a final exam earlier or later than scheduled. Permission is normally granted for documented family emergencies, documented medical reasons, or for participation in educational programs. Permission will also be granted for students scheduled to take three exams on a single calendar day (not three exams within a general twenty-four-hour period). Students with three exams on one calendar day must document their situation with the associate dean for academic affairs no later than 5:00 p.m. on Reading Day. Students in this situation will be granted permission to work with one of their instructors to arrange to take one of their exams at an alternate date and time within the official exam week. Leaving early for rides or flights, vacations, relatives' or friends' weddings or graduations, jobs, or having two exams on one day, and other situations, are not considered valid reasons to request an earlier or later exam.

CLASS ATTENDANCE

Each student is responsible for his or her academic progress. Students are responsible for the effects of absences from class or laboratory on their academic work. Each professor will determine class attendance requirements and may impose penalties for excessive absences. Report of excessive absence is sent to the Advising Support Center and will be considered evidence of a student's disregard for academic responsibility, unless excused (for medical or other appropriate reasons).

Faculty members are urged to accommodate student absences due to participation in services on religious holidays. Students are responsible for informing professors well in advance of planned religious observances that conflict with class attendance and for making arrangements to complete any work thereby missed. Please review the official list of religious holidays at www.religiouslife.emory.edu.

PROBATION AND EXCLUSION

Academic Probation

A student whose cumulative grade-point average is less than 2.0 at the end of any grading period automatically incurs academic probation.

Students on probation are expected to concentrate their energies on their studies in order to bring their work up to the required standards of Oxford College.

Continuation in Attendance

A student incurring academic probation at the end of a semester may continue in attendance provided the following minimum standards are met:

1. The student's cumulative grade-point average must be at least 1.0 at the end of any semester at the conclusion of which the student has attempted no more than 26 credit hours.
2. The student's cumulative grade-point average must be at least 1.5 at the end of any semester at the conclusion of which the student has attempted more than 26 but no more than 56 semester credit hours in Oxford College.
3. The student's cumulative grade-point average must be at least 1.7 at the end of any semester at the conclusion of which the student has attempted more than 56 semester hours in Oxford College, unless the student has completed five semesters.

4. A student who has completed five semesters in Oxford College may petition for an additional final semester only if the student's cumulative grade-point average is at least 1.9. Petitions will be considered by the associate dean of academic affairs and the Academic Appeals Committee; in cases where such petitions are granted, the sixth semester is normally the next consecutive semester.

Academic Exclusion

A student who fails to meet minimum requirements for continued attendance is typically excluded for a minimum of one semester during an academic year. Excluded students may be readmitted only through appropriate petition to the associate dean of academic affairs and completion of the readmission application process. Such petitions must establish a reasonable likelihood that the student's academic performance will improve. The petition must also establish that the student will be able to complete the degree requirements for graduation in the allowed time.

SPECIFIC POLICIES

FERPA

Emory University recognizes a student's right of privacy and is committed to protecting students from improper disclosure of private information. In accordance with the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) of 1974, Oxford College of Emory University limits the disclosure to others of all private information from educational records without the student's prior written consent. The written consent form must be signed and dated and must specify the records to be disclosed and the identity of the recipient. The student may rescind this consent form at any time; the FERPA policy is located at: registrar.emory.edu/Students/FERPA/index.html.

Official Transcripts

Transcripts of a student's academic record may be obtained from the Office of Enrollment Services by requesting it online. Transcripts include the entire scholastic record; no incomplete or partial transcripts will be issued. Transcript requests should be made at least one week before the transcript is needed. No transcripts or official statements of any kind will be issued for students whose records show financial indebtedness to Oxford College or any other official holds on their records.

Please submit transcript request to registrar.emory.edu/Students/Transcripts/index.html.

Effective fall 2013, there is no longer a per transcript fee cost. A special delivery (rush ordering) handling fee will be assessed for express mail service.

Repetition of Courses

Upon approval of the faculty adviser and the associate dean of academic affairs, a student may repeat a course previously passed. The grade for both the original course and the second instance of the repeated course will appear on the transcript, and both grades will calculate into the GPA. No degree credit will be received for the second instance of the repeated course. In the situation where the original course did not carry a Continued Writing Requirement (CWR/W) or Ways of Inquiry (INQ/Q) designation, and the second course instance does, the student will receive the W and/or INQ credit upon successful completion of the course.

Emory College Courses

An Oxford student may, under exceptional circumstances, enroll in courses at Emory College with the permission of the deans of both Oxford and Emory Colleges. Such courses cannot be equivalent to courses offered at Oxford and normally must be courses required of Emory College sophomores as prerequisites to a particular academic major or program.

Cancellation and Withdrawal

To cancel registration or withdraw from the college at any time, a student must secure written permission from the dean or the dean's designee; otherwise, honorable dismissal cannot be granted. A student who withdraws for reasons of illness on the recommendation of the Oxford College Student Health Services or Counseling and Career Services receives grades of W in all courses for that semester. The student will need to submit to Oxford College appropriate documentation verifying that the medical issue prompting the withdrawal is resolved and/or manageable and that the student is viewed by his/her health care provider as physically and/or emotionally fit to resume rigorous academic life. The student may be readmitted to the college when this documentation is received and its content and nature is approved by the associate dean of academic affairs. Please refer to the readmission process on the Oxford College website. Note: students who have withdrawn from the institution for medical reasons and who seek readmission will not receive credit for coursework taken (and passed) at another institution while sitting out.

In all other cases, honorable withdrawal from the college after the first six weeks results in grades of W in courses the student is passing and WF in courses the student is failing at the time of withdrawal. This semester will count towards the five semesters allowed to complete the Oxford Degree. A student who has been accused of an honor code violation may not withdraw from the course.

Refunds of tuition are only partial. A student may cancel registration through the seventh calendar day after the first day of classes, in which case the deposit and application fee are forfeited. After the last day for cancellation of registration, a student may withdraw from the college with the appropriate permission. The forfeiture for withdrawal increases progressively, but is not less than the forfeiture for cancellation. The schedule of forfeitures for tuition is as follows: during the second week of the semester, 20 percent of tuition charges; during the third week, 0 percent; during the fourth week, 60 percent; and during the fifth week, 80 percent. There is no tuition refund after the fifth week of the semester. No refund is given if only part of the course load is reduced after the last day for approved course schedule changes specified in the academic calendar.

Refunds for Oxford College students who are Federal (Title IV) aid recipients will be prorated in accordance with the Higher Education Amendment of 1992 and any related regulations.

Involuntary Withdrawal Policy and Procedure Overview

Oxford College considers the safety and welfare of its students, faculty, and staff a top priority. When a student engages in behavior that violates Oxford's rules of conduct, the behavior will be addressed as a disciplinary matter under the applicable Student Conduct Code. The Student Conduct Code defines prohibited conduct and outlines a process for conducting disciplinary proceedings.

This Involuntary Withdrawal Policy and Procedure is not a disciplinary code, policy, or process. It is not intended to apply to situations in which a student engages in behavior that violates the college's rules of conduct. It is intended to apply when a student's observed conduct, actions, and/or statements indicate a direct threat to the student's own health and/or safety, or a direct threat to the health and/or safety of others. There may be situations in which both this Involuntary Withdrawal Policy and the Student Conduct Code may apply. In all cases, the associate dean of academic affairs shall have final authority regarding the decision, enactment, enforcement, and management of the involuntary withdrawal of a student.

Policy Details Criteria

A student may be withdrawn involuntarily from Oxford College if the college determines that the student represents a direct threat to the health and safety of himself/herself or others by (1) engaging or threatening to engage in behavior which poses a high probability of substantial harm to himself/herself or others; or (2) engaging or threatening to engage in behavior which would cause significant property damage, would directly and substantially impede the lawful activities of others, or would interfere with the educational process and the orderly operation of Oxford College.

Procedure

When the associate dean of academic affairs (or the dean's designee) based on a student's conduct, actions, or statements, has reasonable cause to believe that the student meets one or more of the criteria for involuntary withdrawal, he or she may initiate an assessment of the student's ability to safely participate in Oxford College's program.

The associate dean of academic affairs initiates this assessment by first meeting with the student to (1) review available information concerning the behavior and/or incidents which have caused concern, (2) provide the student with a copy of this Involuntary Withdrawal Policy and Procedure and discuss its contents with the student, (3) provide the student an opportunity to explain his/her behavior, and (4) discuss options available to the student, including counseling, voluntary withdrawal, and evaluation for involuntary withdrawal. If the student agrees to withdraw voluntarily from the university and waives any right to any further procedures available under this policy, the student will be given a grade of W for all courses, will be advised in writing on any conditions that must be satisfied prior to re-enrollment, and may be referred for appropriate mental health or other health services. If the student refuses to withdraw voluntarily from Oxford College, and the associate dean of academic affairs continues to have reasonable cause to believe the student meets one or more of the criteria for involuntary withdrawal, the associate dean of academic affairs may require the student to be evaluated by an appropriate mental health professional.

Evaluation

The associate dean of academic affairs may refer the student for a mandatory evaluation by an appropriate mental health professional or other appropriate professional. The professional may be selected by Oxford College so long as there is no cost to the student for the evaluation. A written copy of the involuntary referral shall be provided to the student. The evaluation must be completed within five school days after the date the referral letter is provided to the student. Prior to the evaluation, the student will be required to sign a written authorization authorizing the exchange of relevant information among the mental health professional(s) (or other professional) and the college. Upon completion of the evaluation, copies of the evaluation report will be provided to the associate dean of academic affairs and the student.

The professional making the evaluation shall make an individualized and objective assessment of the student's ability to safely participate in Oxford's program, based on a reasonable judgment relying on the most current professional knowledge and/or the best available objective evidence. This assessment shall include a determination of the nature, duration, and severity of the risk posed by the student to the health and safety of himself/herself or others, the probability that the potentially threatening injury will actually occur, and whether reasonable modifications of policies, practices, or procedures will sufficiently mitigate the risk. The professional will, with appropriate authorization, share his/her recommendation with the associate dean of academic affairs, who will take this recommendation into consideration in determining whether the student should be involuntarily withdrawn from Oxford. A copy of the professional's recommendation will be provided to the student, unless, in the opinion of the professional, it would be damaging to the student to do so.

If the evaluation results in a determination that the student's continued attendance presents no significant risk to the health or safety of the student or others, and no significant threat to property, to the lawful activities of others, or to the educational processes and orderly operations of Oxford College, no further actions shall be taken to withdraw the student from Oxford College.

If the evaluation results in a determination that the continued attendance of the student presents a significant risk to the health or safety of the student or others, such that there is a high probability of substantial harm, or a significant threat to property, to the lawful activities of others, or to the educational processes and orderly operations of the college, the student may be involuntarily withdrawn from the college. In such an event, the student shall be informed in writing by the associate dean of academic affairs of the involuntary withdrawal, of his/her right to an informal hearing, of his/her right to appeal the decision of the hearing officer, and of any conditions necessary for reenrollment. In most cases, a student who is involuntarily withdrawn will be given a grade of W in all courses in which the student is currently enrolled.

Informal Hearing

A student who has been involuntarily withdrawn may request an informal hearing before a hearing officer appointed by the associate dean of academic affairs by submitting a written request to be heard within two business days from receipt of the notice of involuntary withdrawal. A hearing will be set as soon as possible. The student shall remain involuntarily suspended pending completion of the hearing.

The hearing shall be informal and non-adversarial. During the hearing, the student may present relevant information and may be advised by an Oxford faculty or staff member or a health professional of his/her choice. The role of the adviser is limited to providing advice to the student.

At the conclusion of the hearing, the hearing office shall decide whether to uphold the involuntary withdrawal or whether to reconsider, and the student shall be provided written notice of the officer's decision as soon as possible.

Appeal to the Dean

The student may appeal the hearing officer's decision to the associate dean of academic affairs, who shall review all information presented and make a final decision as to whether or not to uphold the involuntary withdrawal.

Emergency Suspension

The university may take emergency action to suspend a student pending a final decision on whether the student will be involuntarily withdrawn, in situations in which (a) there is imminent danger of serious physical harm to the student or others, (b) there is imminent danger of significant property damage, (c) the student is unable or unwilling to meet with the associate dean of academic affairs, (d) the student refuses to complete the mandatory evaluation, or (e) the associate dean of academic affairs determines such other exceptional circumstances exist that suspension is warranted. In the event emergency action is taken to suspend the student on an interim basis, the student shall be given notice of the emergency suspension and an initial opportunity to address the circumstances on which the emergency suspension is based.

Conditions for Re-enrollment

Because this Involuntary Withdrawal Policy applies to cases in which there is a concern about the safety of the student or others, the associate dean of academic affairs or his/her designee may require a student who has been involuntarily withdrawn under this policy to be re-evaluated before he/she is readmitted in order to assure that he/she presents no direct threat to himself/herself or others.

Academic Appeals

Students may petition for waivers of existing academic regulations and requirements in individual cases. Such petitions are handled under the guidelines established by the dean and faculty, and should be submitted to the associate dean of academic affairs.

Oxford College Code of Conduct

PHILOSOPHY AND PURPOSE

Oxford College of Emory University is an institution dedicated to providing educational opportunities, transmitting and advancing knowledge, and providing a range of services to both students and the general community. The college endeavors to foster in each student a love of learning, commitment to fair and honorable conduct, and respect for the safety and welfare of others. It also strives to protect the community from the influence of those who do not embody these values in their conduct, and to protect the integrity of the college and its property for the benefit of all. For this purpose, and in accordance with the bylaws of the college, the president of Emory University has defined the interests of the college community to be promoted and protected and has delegated to the dean of Oxford College and dean for campus life the responsibility of implementing such a system via the Oxford College Code of Conduct, hereafter referred to as the code.

The activities of students beyond the classroom influence the educational process and learning environment, just as the intellectual atmosphere of the campus contributes to students' personal growth and development. Many forms of nonacademic conduct, as well as all academic affairs, are therefore areas of proper concern and regulation by the college community. The guiding principle of college regulation of undergraduate conduct is the responsible exercise of freedoms and privileges. Members of the college community are granted the greatest possible degree of self-determination correlative to acceptance of the full responsibility for their conduct and the consequences of their actions.

Because the college is an institution of learning, the code has education as its foremost aim; it is not intended to be a solely punitive process nor a substitute for the law. The code aims to sustain an environment conducive to learning, promote a climate of mutual respect, foster open dialogue that promotes learning and understanding, promote individual well-being and personal development, and encourage the application of ethical decision-making in the daily life of undergraduates.

AUTHORITY AND COVERAGE

This code applies to students enrolled in Oxford College, in their conduct both on and off campus. Furthermore, the dean of Oxford College and dean for campus life is delegated responsibility pertaining to all student organizations and student government. In addition, the dean of Oxford College and dean for campus life has the responsibility and authority to discipline students and organizations and may choose to handle such matters in a direct and expedient manner, including taking interim action, including but not limited to interim suspension pending the conclusion of an investigation and hearing, removal from campus housing, the issuance of a No Contact Order, or other measures.

Academic misconduct falls within the jurisdiction of the individual academic units of Oxford College, not this code. Allegations of nonacademic misconduct will be resolved in accordance with the procedures outlined in this code.

Continuation as a student is conditional upon compliance with the expectations of student conduct expressed or implied in this code.

EXPECTATIONS OF CONDUCT

Oxford College of Emory University expects that all students act honorably, demonstrating a keen sense of ethical conduct. The college expects that its students behave respectfully, providing particular consideration for other people and for property. As members of a community, Oxford College expects that students act responsibly, being accountable for the safety and well-being of themselves and others. ## STUDENT CONDUCT PROCEDURES

Reporting Alleged Misconduct

Any member of the college community wishing to report an alleged incident of misconduct under this code may make such report to the chief conduct officer for review. The chief conduct officer will determine whether action should be taken in response to a report. This determination may result in the report being assigned to a conduct officer for investigation or in assignment to the appropriate board or council for a hearing. Reports of alleged misconduct that meet the criteria for medical amnesty may be resolved as outlined within the Medical Amnesty Policy.

Residential Education and Services will notify a student in writing forty-eight hours prior to a scheduled investigation meeting or adjudicating hearing. Failure to attend an investigation meeting will result in a hearing on the alleged misconduct before either a conduct officer or the appropriate board. Failure to attend a hearing will result in the board making a decision on the alleged misconduct without the benefit of the respondent's involvement.

Reports of alleged sexual harassment and sexual misconduct will be resolved as outlined within the Sexual Misconduct Policy.

Violations of the Law and the Code

Students may be accountable to both civil authorities and to the college for acts that constitute violations of the law and this code. Those accused of violations of this code are subject to the college disciplinary proceedings outlined in this code while criminal, civil, or other college proceedings regarding the same conduct are pending. Respondents may not challenge the college disciplinary proceedings outlined in this code on the grounds that criminal allegations of possible violations, civil actions, or other college proceedings regarding the same incident are pending, may be initiated, or have been terminated, dismissed, reduced, or not yet adjudicated. The college will refer matters to federal, state, and local authorities when appropriate. The disciplinary process will proceed independent of, and not subject to, decisions made by non-college authorities.

Investigation Meeting

For cases assigned to a conduct officer for investigation, a preliminary meeting shall occur between a conduct officer and the respondent to review the report as well as to gather the respondent's perspective on the incident. The conduct officer will explain the conduct process and also help the student understand the charges that the student allegedly violated. The purpose of this meeting is make personal contact with the respondent and to determine if the student plans to accept or deny responsibility for the given charges. Oxford College believes that this one-on-one meeting can help all students become more comfortable with the sometimes overwhelming process.

The chief conduct officer, once provided with the information from the investigation meeting, will recommend that the Peer Review Board or the Oxford College Conduct Board adjudicate the case depending on the severity of the charges and prior record of the student involved. The Peer Review Board will be assigned less severe cases where separation from the college is not an appropriate outcome. The College Conduct Board will hear cases not assigned to the Peer Review Board. In more severe or sensitive cases, the Oxford College Administrative Council may also be assigned the case. The use of the Administrative Council will be determined by the dean of campus life. The dean of campus life or the chief conduct officer may also choose to assign a student to meet with a conduct officer for a meeting and/or an adjudicating hearing.

PROCEDURES OF THE BOARDS AND COUNCILS

Purpose of a Hearing

The purpose of a hearing is to examine the report of misconduct, make a determination of responsibility and, if appropriate, assign sanction(s) for the case.

Procedures and Rules

The proceedings shall be non-adversarial in nature. The chair of the board will preserve the non-adversarial nature of the hearing. Examples would be monitoring questions asked by members of the Board and the accused receiving all pertinent information before the hearing.

Hearing proceedings will not be recorded by the college and students are prohibited from using any audio recording device during the proceeding.

The chair shall determine the admissibility of all evidence and testimony, as well as the relevance of all questions. This determination shall be based on relevance. Rules of evidence applicable to criminal or civil court proceedings shall not apply.

In situations where multiple students are alleged to have violated the code based on their behavior in one incident, the Peer Review Board and Conduct Board may, at its discretion, hold a joint hearing for all of the respondents. In a joint hearing, all information and testimony are reviewed and available for all respondents. The boards make a separate finding for each student regarding responsibility and sanctions, if any.

Attendance

The respondent shall have the right to be present at all times during the hearing, except when the board or council enters into deliberations.

Failure on the part of the respondent, complainant, adviser, or witnesses to attend this hearing will result in the hearing body making a decision on the alleged misconduct without the benefit of the respondent's involvement, the adviser's support, or witnesses' testimony.

Witnesses

The college may require any enrolled student to attend and to give testimony relevant to the case under consideration. Signed, written statements of witnesses who cannot attend the hearing may be accepted at the discretion of the chief conduct officer. The college may request the attendance of a faculty or staff member, or alternatively request that a faculty or staff member furnish a written statement. Failure to comply with a request of attendance by the board may result in a failure to comply violation.

Findings

For all cases, the standard that shall be used to determine the respondent's responsibility is preponderance of evidence.

After all admissible evidence has been reviewed, the Oxford College Conduct Board shall deliberate to decide the case. For cases assigned to the Oxford College Conduct Board, the respondent shall be found responsible or not responsible by a majority vote (4–2) for each alleged violation. For cases assigned to the Peer Review Board, the respondent shall be found responsible or not responsible by a majority vote (3–2).

If the respondent is found responsible, the conduct officer or the board shall deliberate to make an assignment of sanction(s). At this time, the board will take into consideration previous violations that resulted in a responsible finding and the sanctions assigned. The sanctions assigned shall be determined by a majority vote.

At the conclusion of the process the student will be notified in writing of the outcome of his or her case by the chief conduct officer or his/her designee for cases assigned to the Peer Review Board and the dean of campus life for cases assigned to the Conduct Board.

FACULTY AND STAFF ADVISERS

To protect the educational and non-adversarial nature of the conduct process, guidelines for participation of advisers will be strictly enforced. In general, participation of advisers is only allowed on behalf of respondents or complainants during conduct board hearing proceedings and not during administrative hearings or peer review board. Requests to have advisers present during other elements of the conduct process may be granted at the discretion of the chief conduct officer. At all times, advisers must follow the guidelines for their participation.

The term adviser is defined as a current faculty or staff member of the Oxford College community who provides assistance to a respondent or complainant at that student's request during a formal hearing. The role of the adviser is to support the student. An adviser may not play an active role such as giving statements or questioning witnesses. An adviser may not speak for or on behalf of the student. A student may consult with his/her adviser during breaks in the hearing, or an adviser may make whispered or written comments to the student during the hearing, provided such comments do not interfere with the hearing process.

2. Be the official custodian of records relating to the nonacademic misconduct of undergraduate students;
3. Retain records of all conduct cases that result in a finding of responsibility for at least the entire tenure of a student's enrollment with the college; and

4. Establish additional policies regarding the retention and maintenance of student conduct records, and such policies shall conform to established college policies on record retention.

Nature of and Changes to the Code

Nothing in this document constitutes a contract or creates a contractual obligation on the part of Oxford College. The college reserves the right to interpret and apply its policies and procedures, and to deviate from these guidelines, as appropriate in the particular circumstances and in accordance with the mission and goals of the college. The college further reserves the right to alter or modify any statement contained in this document without prior notice.

Oxford College Student Honor Code

The responsibility for maintaining standards of unimpeachable honesty in all academic work and in campus judicial proceedings falls upon every individual who is a part of Oxford College of Emory University. The Honor Code is based on the fundamental expectations that every person in Oxford College will conduct his or her life according to the dictates of the Honor Code and will refuse to tolerate actions in others, which would violate the Honor Code.

Article 1: Academic Misconduct

Academic misconduct is an offense generally defined as any action or failure to act, which is contrary to the integrity and honesty of members of the academic community.

- A. Such offenses include, but are not limited to, the following:
1. Seeking, acquiring, receiving, or giving information about the conduct of an examination, knowing that the release of such information has not been authorized
  2. Plagiarizing
  3. Seeking, using, giving, or obtaining unauthorized assistance in any academic assignment or examination
  4. Intentionally mis-shelving, damaging or removing library materials without authorization
  5. Intentionally giving false information to professors or instructors for the purpose of gaining academic advantage
  6. Intentionally giving false testimony in an Honor or Conduct Board hearing or refusing to give evidence when requested by the Honor Council
  7. Intentionally giving unauthorized information regarding hearings of the Oxford College Conduct Board or Honor Council
  8. Breach of any duties prescribed by this code
- B. A duty of confidentiality is implicit in the Honor System. It is academic misconduct under this code for any member of the Honor Council, a student witness, or any student (other than the accused) who has obtained knowledge of an Honor Council proceeding, past or present, to breach this confidentiality. Nothing in this paragraph shall restrict communications to officials of the university where knowledge is necessary to the performance of the officials' duties nor shall it restrict disclosure required by law.
- C. Harassment of witnesses or anyone involved in an Honor Council hearing, before, during or after the hearing constitutes academic misconduct.

Article 2: Honor Pledge and Obligation

- A. A student's submission of any work to be evaluated for course credit constitutes a declaration that he or she has neither given nor received unauthorized information on the work, nor has condoned the giving or receiving of unauthorized information by others.
- B. Each student at Oxford College of Emory University agrees to abide by the honor pledge and takes upon himself or herself the responsibility of upholding the Honor Code. Each student is urged to inquire of the Honor Council about any doubtful case at any time throughout the year.
- C. Each professor shall explain to his or her classes at the beginning of each semester any special aspects of the Honor Code as it pertains to that course.
- D. "State of the Honor Code" meeting of the student body and the council shall be held periodically upon the call of the council. The purpose of these meetings will be to discuss how the Honor Code is working, to strengthen understanding of the code among members of the college community, and to promote improvements.

Article 3: Reporting Cases

It is the responsibility of every member of the faculty, administration and student body to cooperate in supporting the honor system. In pursuance of this duty, any individual, when he or she suspects that an offense of academic misconduct has occurred, shall report this suspected breach to the student chair of the Honor Council, the Faculty Coordinator of the Honor Council, or the dean of academic affairs.

Article 4: Rights of the Accused (Oxford College)

The accused shall have the following rights:

- A. To receive a written statement of the charges at least five (5) days in advance of the hearing. This written statement shall contain a brief statement of the nature of the alleged offense. This statement shall be drawn by the chair and secretary in consultation with the faculty coordinator if, after a preliminary investigation by them, they determine that there is reasonable cause to believe that the Honor Code may have been violated. In the event that the accused does not accept the written statement of charges or does not sign acknowledging receipt, the hearing will nonetheless occur as scheduled.
- B. To receive a copy of this Honor Code and have his or her rights explained.

- C. To have an adviser from the faculty or administration of Oxford College to assist at the hearing. It is important that such an adviser be obtained. The adviser's role is to explain the rights of the accused student during the hearing. Also, to ask questions of the witnesses, as posed by and on behalf of the accused student.
- D. To request a postponement of a hearing for good cause. The request shall be in writing, addressed to the chair of the Honor Council, and must state the reason for making the request. The disposition of the request is at the discretion of the dean of academic affairs.
- E. To testify and present evidence in his or her behalf, subject to limitations on the number of witnesses imposed by the Honor Council and to be present during the presentation of all evidence. If, however, the accused student does not appear at the hearing as scheduled, the hearing will nonetheless proceed in the absence of the accused.
- F. To appeal, unless the accused elects to proceed using the Expedited Hearing Option (See Article 6).
- G. To request that the case proceed using the Expedited Hearing Option (See Article 6).

Article 5: Procedure for Full Hearings before the Honor Council

- A. Hearings shall be fair and impartial. All evidence, regardless of whether it meets the test of admissibility of the rules of evidence, shall be elicited by the Honor Council. Witnesses will testify without oath, and signed statements may be submitted from unavailable witnesses. While any witness (including the accused) is giving testimony, only members of the Honor Council, the accused, and the adviser to the accused may be present. A faculty secretary may be present to record hearings.
- B. The Honor Council shall be allowed all possible latitude in determining whether a violation has occurred and shall itself determine the weight and pertinence of the evidence. The dean of academic affairs shall have access to all meetings, discussions, minutes, and deliberations.
- C. Refusal of a witness to testify shall constitute academic misconduct under this code.
- D. Harassment of witnesses will constitute misconduct under this code.
- E. At the conclusion of the presentation of evidence, the Honor Council shall retire to deliberate in secret. No one involved in the investigation of the charges shall be present during deliberations and only the six (6) voting members may deliberate. A unanimous vote of the six (6) voting members shall be required for a finding of an Honor Code violation. Upon finding an Honor Code violation, the Honor Council shall recommend the sanctions by majority vote.

F. The following sanctions may be imposed:

1. Honor Council probation for one (1) year: The penalty is automatic on conviction, and the student shall be given formal notice in writing that any further violation shall be sufficient cause for further disciplinary action;
2. F in the work involved, with prior consent of the professor;
3. F in the course on the student's permanent transcript, with the prior consent of the professor: In the absence of extraordinary circumstances, this shall be the normal penalty for a first Honor Code offense.
4. Honor Council Suspension;
5. Honor Council Dismissal: All courses in process shall receive a grade of "W," except any course for which an "F" is recorded under (3) above;
6. Honor Council Expulsion; or
7. Such combination of sanctions or other sanction as may be deemed appropriate.

G. A student who drops or withdraws from a course, thereby receiving a "W," and is later found to have violated the Honor Code while enrolled in the course, may receive a "WF" at the discretion of the Council and the dean of academic affairs.

H. The findings and recommendations of the Honor Council shall be transmitted to the dean of academic affairs promptly in a concise written report. After receipt of the report, the student shall be promptly notified in writing of the dean's decision and any sanctions imposed. The dean of academic affairs may reject the finding of an Honor Code violation, but not one of non-violation of the Honor Code, may modify the severity of the recommended sanctions or may require the Honor Council to hold a new hearing.

Article 6: Procedure for Expedited Hearings

A. An accused student may, in an appropriate case, request an expedited hearing in writing to the chair and the faculty coordinator of the Honor Council.

B. Use of the expedited hearing procedure is appropriate in cases where there is evidence that the accused, who has not previously been found to have violated the Honor Code, has committed some violation of the Honor Code, and the accused student acknowledges that violation of the Honor Code and formally requests an expedited hearing before a special three-person panel rather than a full hearing before the Honor Council. The accused must also waive the right to appeal before an expedited hearing is scheduled (see Article 4, F) and acknowledge that use of the expedited hearing procedure does not in any way imply a recommendation for a lesser penalty.

- C. In each Expedited Hearing the special three-person hearing panel shall consist of:
1. The dean of academic affairs
  2. The vice chair (or another voting student member of the council), and
  3. A faculty representative of the council, who is neither the faculty coordinator nor a co-coordinator.
- D. The panel will hear an admission of violating the Honor Code directly from the accused, receive all evidence previously gathered by the investigating team, and may receive any additional statements from the accused and question the accused as the panel deems useful. After the accused student and the student's adviser leave the hearing room, the members of the panel shall review the evidence and the accused student's admission of violating the Honor Code to decide if a finding of the alleged Honor Code violation is warranted. If the panel unanimously determines that the admission of violating the Honor Code is acceptable in light of all the evidence, then the panel members upon reviewing all relevant factors shall recommend by majority vote an appropriate punishment to the dean of academic affairs. The dean of academic affairs may accept or modify the severity of the recommended sanctions, before promptly notifying the student of the outcome of the hearing.

Article 7: Appeals

- A. A student may appeal a finding of Honor Code violation, the punishment, or both, to the Appeals Committee, unless the findings resulted from the Expedited Hearing Procedure, in which case the right to appeal has been waived by the student. The appeal must be written and submitted to the chair of the Honor Appeals Committee within seven (7) days of the receipt of the dean's decision.
- B. The Honor Appeals Committee shall be composed of three (3) faculty members appointed by the dean of academic affairs. The committee shall recommend to the dean of academic affairs that a previous decision be affirmed, that the penalty be reconsidered, or that a new hearing be held.

- C. The Honor Appeals Committee shall review the report and physical evidence in the case, may take additional evidence and in its discretion, permit the accused to submit additional evidence. The Appeals Committee may consult with whomever they consider appropriate in reviewing the case. Upon completion of the review, the Appeals Committee shall advise the dean of academic affairs of its recommendations.
- D. The dean of academic affairs shall promptly notify the accused in writing of the recommendation and of any action he or she is taking based thereon.

Article 8: Honor Council

There shall be a body known as the Honor Council which shall be charged with two duties:

- A. To sponsor an effective educational campaign among students for highest academic and judicial integrity at Oxford College and to promote a clear understanding throughout the college community of the issues involved in the Honor Code.
- B. To hear all cases, referred to it alleging honor violations by students. The duty of the council shall be to determine whether the accused has violated the Honor Code and to make recommendations to the dean of academic Affairs.

Article 9: Membership

The Honor Council shall consist of twenty-two (22) persons—a chair, a secretary (both non-deliberating members), ten (10) student members, and ten (10) faculty members

- A. The chair is elected according to Article 9; student members are appointed according to Article 10. Faculty members are appointed according to Article 9, Section C.
- B. The chair of the Honor Council shall be appointed according to Article 10 of the Honor Code. The chair shall serve one year beginning at the end of the spring semester. The chair of the Honor Council shall be the student member receiving appointment from the current Honor Council, both faculty and student members, in consultation with the dean of academic affairs. From the student members, the Honor Council shall choose one member to serve as the secretary, another member to serve as vice chair, and two others to serve as investigators. If the chair for any reason cannot fulfill his or her term of office, the vice chair will become chair for that term; the vice chair shall share in the planning and facilitation of non-investigatory duties assigned to the chair and secretary under this code. Four of the eligible student members will serve as voting members in each Honor Council hearing. An Investigator is eligible to serve as a voting member in any case in which he or she has had no prior involvement, unless otherwise disqualified under Article 9, Section E. New members will be appointed when and only when a sufficient number of voting student members is not available.

- C. Ten faculty representatives shall be appointed by the dean of academic affairs, upon approval of the faculty, to serve as members of the Honor Council. In each Honor Council hearing two faculty representatives will serve as voting members. If particular expertise is needed in a given case, an additional faculty member may be assigned by the dean of academic affairs for that case.
- D. The dean of academic affairs shall designate one faculty representative to serve as the faculty coordinator for the Honor Council. The faculty coordinator shall be the principal adviser to the chair and the other officers of the Honor Council with regard to all matters arising under the Honor Code. The dean shall designate two faculty representatives to serve as the co-coordinators for the Honor Council. Each co-coordinator shall assist the coordinator in the execution of the duties described above by performing such portions of those duties assigned to them by the coordinator. A co-coordinator is eligible to serve as a voting faculty member in any case in which he or she has had no prior involvement unless otherwise disqualified under Article 8, Section E.
- E. In case of emergency or when members of the Honor Council are not available for service, the chair, with approval of the dean of academic affairs, may appoint students to serve for that case only. Any member of the council who is a witness in a case is automatically disqualified for that case. A member may also disqualify himself or herself for reasons of interest, bias, close relationship to the accused, or any other appropriate reason. In the event that the faculty coordinator is disqualified, or otherwise unable to participate in any case or portion of a case, one of the co-coordinators or other faculty representatives may serve as an ad hoc faculty coordinator.

Article 10: Student Election and Appointment to the Honor Council

- A. In order to qualify for nomination for a position on the Honor Council, a student must have an overall "C" average in academic work, must not be under penalty of conduct probation or honor probation, and must be nominated by a petition bearing the signature of twenty-five students.
- B. The chair of the Honor Council shall be appointed in the spring semester by the current Honor Council, both faculty and student members, in consultation with the dean of academic affairs. Any Honor Council member wishing to be considered for chair must have obtained membership in the manner described in Article 10, Section C and be approved by the current members of the Honor Council.

- C. The eleven student members of the Honor Council shall be appointed by the current Honor Council, both faculty and student members, in consultation with the dean of academic affairs. Eight of the student members will be appointed from the rising sophomore class, and must have completed at least two resident semesters on campus and have two semesters of normal residence work remaining on the campus. Three of the student members will be appointed from the current first-year class at the end of fall semester and will serve two full semesters on the council. Students may apply for membership on the Honor Council by providing the following materials: a petition, signed by twenty five students; a statement indicating reasons for wanting to be a member of the Honor Council; two letters of recommendation from current members of the faculty. These materials will be submitted to the faculty coordinator of the Honor Council.
- D. During the summer term, the Honor Council will consist of any elected members enrolled for that term, with the chair designated from this group. Any remaining vacancies shall be filled by appointment made by the dean of academic Affairs in consultation with the remaining members of the Honor Council. If no Honor Council members are present in the summer, a council will be selected by a method of the academic dean's choosing.
- E. Any member of the Honor Council holding office under the provisions of this Honor Code may be impeached if he or she is found to have engaged in gross neglect of duty or misconduct in office. Impeachment procedure shall be the same as that provided by the Honor Code for violation. An impeachment charge must be brought by a member of the Honor Council. Any student member of the Honor Council shall resign his or her office if he or she is placed on honor or conduct probation.

Article 11: Jurisdiction and Authority of the Honor Council

Jurisdiction of the Honor Council shall extend to cases involving academic misconduct and deliberate falsification in campus judicial proceedings. Faculty members may not impose honor penalties contrary to the decision of the dean of academic affairs based on findings and recommendations of the Honor Council. The dean of academic affairs shall not impose a grade penalty without permission of the appropriate faculty member.

Article 12: Miscellaneous

Wherever the word “dean of academic affairs” is used herein, it shall include the dean of academic affairs or his or her designee.

Article 13: Amendments

This Honor Code shall be subject to amendment and revision with the consent of the dean of academic affairs and a majority of the faculty.

EMORY UNIVERSITY POLICY STATEMENT ON DISCRIMINATORY HARASSMENT

It is the policy of Emory University that all employees and students should be able to enjoy and work in an educational environment free from discriminatory harassment. Harassment of any person or group of persons on the basis of race, color, national origin, religion, sex, sexual orientation, age, disability, or veteran’s status is a form of discrimination specifically prohibited in the Emory University community. Any employee, student, student organization, or person privileged to work or study in the Emory University community who violates this policy will be subject to disciplinary action up to and including permanent exclusion from the university.

Discriminatory harassment includes conduct (oral, written, graphic, or physical) directed against any person or group of persons because of their race, color, national origin, religion, sex, sexual orientation, age, disability, or veteran’s status that has the purpose or reasonably foreseeable effect of creating an offensive, demeaning, intimidating, or hostile environment for that person or group of persons. Such conduct includes, but is not limited to, objectionable epithets, demeaning depictions or treatment, and threatened or actual abuse or harm.

In addition, sexual harassment includes unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature when:

- Submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of an individual’s employment or a student’s status in a course, program, or activity.
- Submission to or rejection of such conduct by an employee or student is used as the basis for employment or academic decisions affecting that employee or student.
- Such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an employee’s work performance or a student’s academic performance or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive employment, educational, or living environment.

All university vice presidents, deans, and division and department chairs should take appropriate steps to disseminate this policy statement and to inform employees and students of procedures for lodging complaints. All members of the student body, faculty, and staff are expected to assist in implementing this policy.

The scholarly, educational, or artistic content of any written, oral, or other presentation or inquiry shall not be limited by this policy. It is the intent of this paragraph that academic freedom be allowed to all members of the academic community. Accordingly, this provision shall be liberally construed but shall not be used as a pretext for violation of this policy.

Any student or employee with a complaint of discriminatory harassment should contact the associate vice president for Equal Opportunity Programs to obtain information on the procedure for handling such complaints. Any questions regarding either this policy statement or a specific fact situation should be addressed to the Emory University Office of Equity and Inclusion.

UNIVERSITY-STUDENT RELATIONSHIPS

The Board of Trustees of Emory University has adopted a statement of policy dealing with university-student relationships. A digest of that policy follows:

1. Emory University was founded on Christian principles by the Methodist church and proudly continues its church relationship as an agency dedicated to seeking and imparting truth.
2. Emory University admits qualified students of any sex, sexual orientation, race, color, national origin, age, religion, disability, or veteran's status to all of the rights, privileges, programs, and activities generally accorded or made available to students at Emory University; it does not discriminate on the basis of sex, sexual orientation, age, race, color, national origin, religion, disability, or veteran's status in administering its educational policies, admission policies, scholarship and loan programs, athletic programs, and other programs administered by Emory University.
3. Attendance at Emory University is a privilege and not a right; however, no student will be dismissed except in accordance with prescribed procedures; students applying for admission do so voluntarily and are free to withdraw, subject to compliance with the regulations of their schools or colleges governing withdrawal and to the fulfillment of their financial obligations to the university.
4. Upon matriculation at Emory, each student agrees to be bound by the rules, policies, procedures, and administrative regulations as they exist at the time of admission and as they may be changed by duly constituted authority.

5. By enrolling as a student at Emory University, a person acquires the right to pursue the course of study to which he or she is admitted and to be treated with the dignity appropriate to an adult person in all matters relating to the university; in the same spirit, the student shall comply with the rules and regulations of Emory University.
6. Students are provided the opportunity to participate in the development of rules and procedures pertaining to university affairs to the extent that such participation and the results thereof, as determined by the Board of Trustees or its designated agent, are consistent with orderly processes and with the policies and administrative responsibilities of the Board of Trustees and the administration.
7. The university expects students to conduct themselves with dignity, courtesy, responsibility, and integrity, and with due respect for the rights of others, realizing that sobriety and morality are not only characteristics of a mature and responsible person but are also essential to the maintenance of a free and orderly society.
8. Membership in and rules governing admission to student organizations shall be determined by the organizations themselves, and such rules shall not be required to be uniform as long as these rules do not contravene any policy established by the Board of Trustees.

Emory University is an educational institution, not a vehicle for political or social action. It endorses the right of dissent and protects and encourages reasonable exercise of this right by individuals within the university. Because the right of dissent is subject to abuse, the Board of Trustees and the president have published a statement to clarify policy concerning such abuse. A digest of that statement follows:

1. Individuals associated with Emory represent a variety of viewpoints; the university fosters the free expression and interchange of differing views through oral and written discourse and logical persuasion.
2. Dissent, to be acceptable, must be orderly and peaceful and must represent constructive alternatives reasonably presented.
3. Coercion, threats, demands, obscenity, vulgarity, obstructionism, and violence are not acceptable.
4. Demonstrations, marches, sit-ins, or noisy protests that are designed to or that do disrupt normal institutional pursuits are not permitted.
5. Classes and routine operations will not be suspended except for reasonable cause as determined by the president.
6. Administrators, faculty, staff, and students are expected to abide by these standards of conduct in promoting their views, particularly dissent.

7. Persons who oppose these policies should not become associated with Emory nor continue to be associated with Emory.
8. Academic and administrative procedures protect individuals in the right of free expression and provide for prompt and appropriate action against those who abuse such right.

OXFORD COLLEGE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

The purpose of the Oxford College Alumni Association (Oxford College Alumni Board) is to support and promote educational excellence at Oxford College by creating and sustaining a mechanism through which Oxford College can communicate regularly with and serve its alumni, as well as a means through which alumni may communicate with and serve Oxford College.

The association is made up of class agents who are the Alumni Board representatives for their Oxford graduation year. They are asked to inform and educate their classmates about Oxford, to provide information about Oxford's ongoing activities and future plans, and to support Oxford's fund-raising efforts. Oxford class agents choose to volunteer, serve, and act as stewards for Oxford College and the university. Without their help, we could not educate, inform, and build relationships with Oxford alumni.
